

CERTIFICATION CLASSES FORMING NOW • FIRST TIME OFFERED IN NEW YORK STATE
LifeWays Early Childhood and Human Development Training
Starting in Buffalo, New York in April 2012 at The Rose Garden Early Childhood Center

WHAT:

LifeWays Early Childhood and Human Development Training is a year-long, part-time curriculum for those who care for and teach children from birth to six years old. Combining approximately 200 on-site hours with independent study and mentoring, this intensive certification course will prepare you to open or transform your own in-home program, classroom, center or personal home life.

WHEN:

Starting April of 2012. This 13-month long course includes four weekends and one two-week session of intensive on-site training classes. In between, participants continue learning through independent study and mentoring.

2012 - 2013 BUFFALO SCHEDULE:

Session One: April 13-16, 2012

Session Two: July 2-13, 2012

Session Three: October 5-8, 2012

Session Four: January 18-21, 2013

Session Five: April 5-8, 2013

If one of these dates does not work for you, ask about make-up days in other parts of the country, such as Maine, Wisconsin, Colorado, Texas or California.

COST:

LifeWays Certification Tuition is $3400 plus $500 mentor fee & $300 supply fee, totaling $4200. Creative payment plans available through LifeWays North America. $50 application fee.
